

Athletes and Abilities

Travel as junior reporter to the Paralympics 2018 in South Korea

What you can expect

Experienced Tagesspiegel journalists will prepare you for your tasks during a preparing workshop in Berlin (27 November till 1 December 2017). In March 2018 you will travel to PyeongChang, South Korea to report from the Paralympic Winter Games (9 to 18 March 2018) as accredited journalist. For Athletes and Abilities you will cover the Games, have interviews with athletes, VIPs and politicians. You will write online and print articles as well as social media posts. Costs for travel, accommodation and board will be covered.

What we expect

- Korean aged 18 to 25 (on March 2018)
- Interest in para-sports
- Passion for journalism
- Affinity for social media
- Excellent command of English (spoken and written)
- Command of German is an advantage

How to apply

- Fill out the application form
- Upload a letter of motivation (max. 1.000 characters including space) and
- A journalistic sample (interview, portrait or article) on para-sports (2.500 characters including space)

You can apply until 17 July 2017. If you have questions, feel free to write an e-mail to Tanja Peuker, paralympics@tagesspiegel.de.

For further information please visit: www.paralympics-zeitung.de

